DRANK OUNCE OF CARBOLIC

Cause for Ralph King's Attempt to Take Life in Connersville Lies in Court Here.

HE FACES CONTEMPT CHARGE

Case Here Against Him of Two Years
Standing Will Come up for Trial January 17.

The cause of the attempted suicide of Ralph King of Connersville, late Saturday afternoon, probably lies in the circuit court here, and while his people in Connersville were looking for a reason for his act, it can be stated with almost a certainty that it was his brooding over domestic troubles that led him to drink an ounce of carbolic acid.

Mrs. Edna King was granted a divorce from Ralph King in the circuit court here on May 12, 1911, and in the decree she was given two dollars a week for the support of their child. King failed to pay the two dollars a week support money and contempt proceedings were brought by Mrs. King. The contempt suit was filed May 21, 1912, and every time the case was called it was shown that service on King had not been secured. Last week the case again came up and a warrant was issued for King. He appeared here on Friday and was released on $300 bond to assure his appearance in court on January 17. His father, John King, was surety in the amount of the bond.

John King, the young man's father,
is the owner of a livery stable there and the suicide was attempted there Saturday afternoon. He was found in time and advices from Connersville today stated that he was out of danger and would recover. Mr. King was unconscious when found by one of the employees of the barn. It is not thought that he drank as much of the acid as was first supposed.

Mr. King is known by many people here. He has lived in Connersville for the past seven or eight years. He was injured in a wreck last summer and since has never regained his former health. This, together with his domestic difficulties is said to have caused him to attempt to take his life. Mrs. King at present resides in Franklin county.
She is represented in court here by
M. P. Hubbard of Brookville.

The attempted suicide of King is the fourth or fifth in Connersville or Fayette county within the past few weeks. At least two have been successful and the carbolic route has become quite popular.

RABBITS WILL BE SCARCE

Open Season For Hunting Came to End Saturday.

Rabbits are safe from the hunters'
guns now because the open season for hunting them closed Saturday at midnight. This means that there will be very few on the market now because the killing of them entails a heavy penalty if the hunter is convicted. The law restricting the time for killing rabbits was passed by the last legislature.

PHOENIX LODGE.

The next regular meeting of Phoenix lodge No.
62, F. and A. M. will be held Tuesday night, January 13. A good attendance is desired.

CAUGHT IN SHELBYVILLE

Merchants There Wise to Game of Homer Woman.

Mrs. Jennie Kodle of Homer was arrested Saturday afternoon in Shelbyville after she had obtained some money by false representations. Mrs.
Kodle had been in Shelbyville for almost a week, it is said, and had been begging from the merchants.
As a last resort she used the name
"Mrs. Thomas Mull" in securing some money. She went to the store of S. B. Morris Company and succeeded in getting a dollar from H. K.
Morris, using the name Mull. Mr.
Morris became suspicious and found that there was no Mrs. Thomas Mull and had the woman arrested. She is not wanted here and as Mr. Morris did not want to push the charge,
she was sent to her home.

FOUND DEAD NEAR TRACTION STOP

Indianapolis Merchant Suffered Fatal Attack Saturday Night
While Going to Car.

VIAL OF CAMPHOR IN HAND

William M. Ball, 50 years old, of Indianapolis, was found dead Sunday morning at the side of the road,
just north of what is known as Martin's stop on the I. & C. west of Con-nersville. Mr. Ball had been dead many hours before his body was found. He was the son of the late William Ball and formerly lived in that neighborhood. He had been visiting there for several days and Saturday night left the house to catch the car due there about nine o'clock. He had suffered for sometime from heart disease and it is supposed that in his hurry to catch the car an attack was brought on.
When found Mr. Ball had a small vial of camphor in one hand but he died before the cork was removed.

Mr. Ball was engaged in the retail grocery business in Indianapolis and was quite influential. He was never married.

COWDY HOME BURNS DOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvia Headlee Find
Fire When They Return.

A three-room frame house belonging to Sylva Headlee was destroyed by fire in Gowdy Saturday night about ten-thirty o'clock at a loss of approximately $1,000. There was $600 insurance. The fire originated in an overheated stove. Mr. and Mrs. Headlee and family discovered the fire when they returned home,
but then it was so far advanced that only a few household goods could be saved. In attempting to carry water to the attic to quench the flames Mr.
Headlee fell down and was severely bruised, but was able to get out of the house without assistance.

JURY CASE.

The case of William E. Wood and Ed M. Reece against Eli Archey on a note and foreclosure, demanding $95, started in the circuit court today. The case is being heard by a jury and will probably occupy all of tomorrow. The case involves a horse that the plaintiffs purchased from the defendant. This is the first jury case in some weeks. The case has been on the court docket almost a year.

TO VISIT EVERY MEMBER IN 1 DAY

Officiary of St. Paul M. E. Church
Arrange For "Every-Member"
Canvass January 22.

PASTOR DISCUSSES TOPIC

Declares Empty Pews Are a Discouragement and Help Chill the Whole Congregation.

Yesterday morning at the St.
Paul's Methodist church the Rev.
A. D. Batchelor spoke on a unique campaign which is being planned for the church. It is known as the "every-member" canvass. The plan is for the entire officary of the church to visit every member of the congregation in a single day.

The air of the canvass is to enable the officary to get a better survey of the field, to become more intimately acquainted with the membership
at large, to cultivate a large sociability in the church to urge personally a more regular attendance at the appointed services of the church, and to invite each member to contribute to the support of the church.

The date set for the campaign of visitation is Thursday, Jan. 22. On this day an all-day meeting will be held at the church. An address by Dr. V. W. Tevis will be made about nine o'clock in the morning before the canvassers start out.

The ladies Aid Society will serve a lunch at the noon hour to the canvassers and others who may drop in.
Immediately after lunch an address will be made by J. E. Watson. The canvassers will then start out and finish the visitation. It is the plan to visit all the country members as well as those in the city. All the automobiles in the church will be pressed into service.

During this week a circular letter will be sent out to the entire membership outlining the aim of the canvass and inviting each member to be either at home or at the church on that day so that no one may be missed by the canvassers.
Yesterday morning the Rev. Mr.
Batchelor announced that all the men of the church were invited to participate in the canvass and that about seventy-five men had been selected to supervise the work of visitation. He urged all the men of the church to set aside that day as a day for the church and to arrange their business affairs that they might participate in the general
visitation.

The men who were selected for the work of supervision were as follows.
These men he said were especially expected to be present on that day.
A. L. Aldridge, C. H. Alger, S. B.
Anderson, George Aull, Samuel
Anderson, L. L. Allen, V. C. Bodine,

SHORT COURSE OPENS TODAY

Week's School of Agriculture at Purdue University Attracts Many Indiana Farmers.

ORCHARDS ARE IMPORTANT

Lecturer Recommends Farmers
Make Definite Plan Before Undertaking Gardening.

[Special to the Daily Republican.]

LaFayette, Ind., Jan. 12.—The annual Farmers' Short Course, undoubtedly one of the vital factors in the development of Indiana's agriculture prosperity, commenced at Purdue today and will continue until Saturday. The course, which comprises lectures and demonstrations in dairying, home economics, horticulture, poultry, livestock husbandry and soils and crops, is being attended by one of the largest audiences that has ever visited the state agricultural school. The instruction is being given by professors of the university, and a number of men and women of national reputation will be present during the week to aid in the work.

"We are delighted with the interest shown by the crowd," commented Professor G. I. Christie, superintendent of agricultural instruction,
this afternoon. "From all parts of Indiana men and women have come here with a definite purpose in view,
—the securing of aid in the solution
of their farm and home problems.
The school of agriculture is better equipped than ever before for the handling of the increased attendance, and we will do all in our power to make every minute count
in a practical way."

The morning hours were devoted to registering the students and it is believed that nearly every county in the state will be represented in the course before the week's work is completed. Visits to the various agricultural buildings and getting acquainted with the location of the classes proved of interest to many,
and scores who have never visited the state school were astounded to note the remarkable advantages. Each student, upon registering, is given a little badge to be worn through the week, and the Purdue students freely lent their courtesies of the "folks from back home."

One of the principal lectures of the day was given by C. B. Durham, of Purdue's horticultural department, who discussed "The Home Vegetable Garden." Mr. Durham recommended that farmers make a definite plan, in black and white, before undertaking gardening. This,
he says, will result in a great saving of time and labor, and should be a chart of procedure throughout the season.

In an hour's lecture, Mr. W. R.
Palmer, another expert identified with the activities of the horticultural department, lauded the farm orchard, pointing out, by analysis of actual records, the real importance of this phase of farming. The average farm orchard, he says, contains about 27 apple trees and cherry trees. This fruit plantation occupies about an acre of ground, and although it gets less care than any other crop, it is equally productive
with the average acre of most farm crops.

J. R. Garver, who is in charge of the dairy extension work throughout Indiana, discussed "Dairy Herd Improvement" before a large class, appealing for better methods in dairy management.

The New Colors For Spring

The stores are already beginning to answer the questions that so many women wanted answered.

As you read your newspaper
today you will notice the new spring note creeping into the advertising. The stores are already beginning to show the beautiful cottons from which women will make their summer
frocks.

The woman who expects to keep posted to the minute must be an advertising reader.

She must avail herself of the service her favorite newspaper
provides for her.

It is the best fashion news
in the world because it is based on actual merchandise and not on theories. It is up to the minute. It is written in a way that makes it clear to her.

But it seems almost unnecessary to remind American women of the joys of advertising—for they are already the greatest readers of advertised
in the world.

can transform farm products into human food more efficiently than either the ox or the pig and that she is capable of returning the highest net profit of any animal on the farm is an imperative reason why farmers should use the best methods," declares Mr. Garver. "Animals which are merely paying for their feed should be eliminated and replaced with cows that yield a liberal margin of profit for the time and energy expended upon them."

Dr. R. A. Whiting, animal pathologist at Purdue, devoted considerable time later in the day to discussing the hog cholera situation in Indiana, and Dr. U. G. Houck told of the actual work of control being accomplished in Montgomery county.

"The latest reports for 1912 give a cholera loss of over 562,000 hogs, or one hog out of every eight born during the year," declared Dr. Whiting. "Although the disease is widespread, much improvement has been shown during the past year, but in order to have a greater improvement in 1914, the state needs the co-operation of everyone. Every outbreak of the disease in a community should be reported, hogs should be quarantined and sick hogs disposed of. The premises should be cleaned and disinfected, and a systematic use of anti-hog-cholera serum on all exposed and healthy hogs should be commenced immediately."

"Grape Culture" was the theme of an optimistic lecture by J. Osjamp, of the horticultural department, who declared that returns might be expected to compare very favorably with other crops. The last census, he showed, gives the average Indiana grape vine yield at about 2 pounds of fruit, valued at 2 cents a pound. Vines come into profitable bearing at four years old, yielding 100 to 600 eight-pound basket of fruit per acre. They will give a yearly increase of about 200 baskets until a maximum of 1,000 to 1,500 baskets is reached.

"The only real test of a milk cow's quality is by keeping in exact record of her milk and fat production for at least one entire lactation period," said R. E. Caldwell, of the dairy department of Purdue, in discussing this theme. Mr. Caldwell explained the use of the score card, and urged his hearers to consider the following points in the selection of a high class dairy cow,—capacity, nervous temperament, blood circulation, quality and constitution.

"Mother" hasn't been left at home on the farm this year to take care of the chores while "Father" came to Purdue to be a student. Not much! The women of the household just packed their suit cases and came along, and they are getting many little pointers in the art of cooking plain, but palatable, food. There are not a few young women in the crowd enrolled in the home economics division, and the man who gets one of them will at least get a life partner who knows the principles of scientific management.

For instance, the very first lecture in the course was by Miss Alice Biester, on "Planning of Meals." Miss Biester considered the selection and combination of food stuffs, and the necessity of studying market prices, the labor and fuel required in preparation, etc. Methods of introducing variety in the diet were not overlooked, and considerable attention was given the nutritive value of different kinds of foods, compared with the needs of the body.

Miss Roberta McNeil, one of the workers of the agricultural extension department, gave many hints concerning the use of "White Sauce," which is any sauce composed of a liquid, fat and stiffening material, including all cream sauces, gravies, etc.

One of the best attended courses is that offered by Purdue's poultry experts, many expressing an intention to devote more time to the raising of birds which would lay eggs of fabulous value. Prof. A. G. Phillips, head of the poultry department, today outlined this work being attempted by the poultry department here, and astonished his classes by

In the soils and crops division, Prof. R. C. E. Wallace discussed "Physical Factors in Soil Management," but the greater part of the afternoon was devoted to corn judging, and the studying of ideal types of ears. The exhibit this year promises to be remarkably good and will undoubtedly furnish plenty of substantial evidence that Indiana is not losing her prestige as a corn-growing state.

COURT WAS KEPT BUSY PAST YEAR

Statistical Report of County Clerk Shows That Rush County Can Support Separate Circuit.

DISPOSES OF MANY CASES

Only Nineteen Secure Divorces While One Hundred Sixty Were Married.

Clerk of the circuit court, A. M. Taylor has completed his statistical report for the year 1913. Some interesting figures are shown in the report, which was made to Thomas E. Brolley, state statistician. The report covers the first year of the court since the county has had a separate circuit and the figures show that Rush county can well support a circuit of its own.

During the past year 249 cases were filed and 235 were disposed. Twenty cases were venued to other counties and twenty-one were received from other counties. Twenty-three cases were in juvenile court and fifty-six letters of administration were taken out. Guardianships numbered fifteen. Clerk Taylor issued 160 marriage licenses and 339 hunting licenses. Marriages here have a lead on divorces that is so large that there is no comparison. In the year but 19 were given divorces. Twenty-eight cases were filed. Eleven were either dismissed or denied.

In the past year, forty criminal cases were filed and eighteen were dismissed and thirty disposed of by the court. Seven convictions were obtained for felonies and nineteen for misdemeanors. Three men were allowed their freedom on probation. There were two cases for liquor violations and no convictions.

In 1912, or during the year that Rush county and Shelby county formed a circuit 262 cases were filed in the circuit court and 224 were disposed of. Fifty-nine cases were received by the venue route and ten sent out of the county. The hunting business increased last year over 1912. Two hundred and twenty-one licenses were issued in 1912. A total of 39 divorces were filed in the year 1912 and four were either dismissed or denied. Eighteen criminal cases were disposed of and 18 were dismissed and ten venued.

Republican Honor.

The claptrap that is being disseminated by Progressive speakers in many parts of the country is appalling. Every day the last sad rites are read over the poor, old, maligned elephant, but nevertheless the G. O. P. refuses to die, all of which must be very disgusting to the agitators who are doing all they can to keep alive the party that was founded to promote the interests of one man.

Bainbridge Colby of New York at a Progressive conference at Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday night said that "there is but one honorable course for the honorable men of the Republican party, and that is the open and courageous identification of themselves with the party that expresses the ideals." That party, of course, is the Progressive party, for, be it known, the Progressive party has all the honor rounded up.

Since the "honorable" men in the Republican party—and vouchsafing an opinion from the dissertations of ranting Progressive orators one would be led to believe there are few "honorable" men in the Republican party—have heard the dictum of the oracle, they may as well now prepare to follow one of two courses: be dishonorable and stay in the Republican party or be honorable and leave it.

And to be honorable, it should be understood, is to be commendable, estimable, meritorious, noble, illustrious, respectable, characterized by honor, actuated by honor. To be dishonorable is to be the opposite of all or any one of these. So, gentlemen of the Republican party, take your choice.

It is amusing to follow the antics of these so-called orators. We are to presume, if we follow their advice, that all of the honor, merit, veracity, common horse sense and honesty is bottled up in Progressive party and is distributed by a few self-constituted leaders of the Progressive party who followed out of the Republican party a man who left no clod unturned to further his own designs and who trampled down his friends and companions of years to satisfy his own ambition.

All this may be honor, but it's not the common conception of the word outside the Progressive party. There are still a lot of honorable men in the Republican party—and they are going to stay.

AGED MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Jacob Beckner Succumbs at Home of Daughter.

The funeral services of Jacob Beckner, 75 years old, who died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James Casady, west of the city, were held this afternoon, conducted by the Rev. C. M. Yocum. Burial took place in East Hill cemetery. Mr. Beckner died very suddenly from heart disease. He was apparently in his usual health and was found by Mrs. Casady sitting in a chair by the fire. Mr. Beckner's home was in Anderson but he had been visiting his daughter here for sometime. Besides Mrs. Casady he is survived by his widow, one other daughter, Mrs. Dan Perry of Anderson and two sons, Gus Beckner of Anderson and Van Beckner of Chicago.

HAS ALL THE WAR AT HOME HE WANTS

Reading, Pa., Man Writes Recruiting Station That he Does Not Want to Join Navy.

WIFE IS ENOUGH FOR HIM

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 12.—"As I am a married man I get all the war right here at home that I want."

J. C. Samdus, of Reading, Pa., sent this word to the local recruiting office of the United States Navy in reply to circulars the office sent Samdus to interest him in navy life.

"Please don't send me any more letters about joining the navy," Samdus added.

The recruiting office operates a large publicity bureau and sends out thousands of letters daily to persons throughout the country to interest them in navy life.

A woman signing herself as Mrs. Bergen, Hackensack, N. J., fearing that her husband would desert her for the navy, sent the following letter:

"He thinks it would be a great thing to go and fight the Mexicans but with eggs selling at five cents a piece, I think it would be better for him to stay right here and fight the high cost of living."

One correspondent jokingly submitted the name of a Civil War veteran 100 years of age and the recruiting office innocently flooded the veteran with circulars. He replied that if he lived another hundred years he would be glad to spend it in the navy.

TWO BROTHERS ARE HELD

Charged With Drugging and Throwing Anderson Man Into Creek.

Anderson, Ind., Jan. 12.—Jacob Fultmer, forty-two years old, and John Fultmer, forty years old, have been arrested charged with having drugged John Suiter, thirty years old, robbing him of $21 and throwing him unconscious into Green's branch. Suiter is in a critical condition from bruises and exposure.

Suiter said he was on his way home from work at the American Wire and Steel mill, accompanied by the Fultmers. He said they gave him something to drink out of a bottle, which he thought was whisky, but which was evidently some drug. He said he did not lose consciousness, but that he had no use of his limbs. Supposing him to be unconscious, he said, the Fultmers searched his pockets, taking his money, and threw him over the railing into the water. His cries for aid were heard by a small colored boy, who summoned assistance.

PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL CAREFULLY GUARDED

No Precaution Neglected to Insure Safety.

Pass Christian, Miss., Jan. 12.—Accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and the other members of his family, President Wilson is on his way home. The president went to bed in his private car on the railroad switch adjacent to the Pass Christian station shortly after 9 o'clock last night. A few minutes after 11 o'clock the special train started north. Washington will be reached if all goes well, at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning.

There were a few persons gathered at the depot when the big White House automobile arrived alongside of the private car, and as the executive alighted from the machine and courteously assisted Mrs. Wilson to the ground, there were hearty cheers by those present.

The president doffed his hat for an instant. Then the group of secret service men gathered behind him and he was whisked across the gravel-paved platform up the steps and into the big private car.

Unusual precautions had been taken to safeguard the life of the chief executive. His train, made up of a big steel car carrying the two big White House automobiles, a heavy baggage car, a regular Pullman for the members of the immediate party, and the private car ideal, was preceded over the route by a pilot train. The latter ran as an "extra" just ten minutes ahead of the presidential special. The regular night and day force of operators were kept on duty in the signal towers, while section hands were ordered to man every switch along the route until the special had passed.

Freight trains along the route had orders to clear the main line thirty minutes ahead of the pilot train, or forty minutes in advance of the presidential party. Passenger trains were ordered to the siding twenty-five minutes before the special was due, and head officials of the railroad kept vigil on board the train to see that the orders were obeyed.

CONGRESS IS BACK ON THE JOB AGAIN

Session Is Resumed After a Twenty-Day Vacation.

Washington, Jan. 12.—After a twenty-day vacation, congress today returned to labor. In the legislative program now being framed supplemental anti-trust legislation, the establishment of a system of rural credits and a drastic immigration bill are to be featured. Just what anti-trust legislation will be passed at this session remains to be determined.

There is a general disposition among the responsible leaders in congress to go slow in passing additional laws bearing upon the activities of corporations, and the indications are that legislation of this sort will not be as broad and comprehensive as has been represented.

After the anti-trust program is taken up congress will turn its attention to other bills that are either on the calendar now, or will be soon presented. They cover a wide range of questions.

TWO HOOSIERS LOSE HEADS

No Appropriation Made For a Continuation of Their Jobs.

Washington, Jan. 12.—In looking around for official heads to decapitate in his department, Secretary of Commerce Redfield has decided to separate from the public service two distinguished Indiana scientists—Dr. Barton W. Everman, chief of the division of Alaskan fisheries, and Fred M. Chamberlain, naturalist of the fur seal service. It develops that provision for these offices was eliminated from the estimates sent to congress by Secretary Redfield.

Dr. Everman formerly lived at Terre Haute. Chamberlain, whose home is at Seelyville, is the young man who not long ago made a spectacular race with death while being carried in a revenue cutter from the seal fields in the Pribiloff islands to Seattle for treatment, accompanied by his bride of a few weeks. He is now recuperating in Arizona.

Shot Himself in Jail.

Marion, Ind., Jan. 12.—Eli A. Wilson, aged thirty-two, a barber, shot himself in the head, dying almost instantly, in the county jail. Wilson's wife was granted a divorce on the grounds of cruelty and drunkenness and he was placed under arrest on her complaint that he was making threats and attempting to break into the house, and she feared he would kill her. Upon entering the jail Wilson made an excuse to go to the toilet room, where the fatal shot was fired.

To Tax Deals in Cotton Futures.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Legislation taxing dealings in cotton futures will be passed at the present session of congress, according to Representative Lever of South Carolina, chairman of the house committee on agriculture.

Obituary.

Mrs. Priscilla Larmore Hollowell, daughter of the late John W. and Louisa Larmore was born October 18, 1848, in Franklin county, Ind., and was promoted into the higher life Friday night, Jan. 2, 1914, at seven minutes before 12 o'clock. As the night passed and the morning drew near so passed the life of her who yearned for the dawning of the morning of eternity.

She was united in marriage with Datus E. Hollowell September 5, 1866. God gave them 5 children, three of whom survive, Luanna dying at the age of Four years and Marshall being called home at the age of thirty-two. Albert L. Hollowell, Dora B. Cohee and Peter S. Hollowell together with their father survive. She also survived by two grand-children, Sylvia Reddick and Donald Cohee, and by one great-grand-child, Marjory Reddick; also by two brothers, T. C. Larmore of Hartfort City, Ind., and Thomas M. Larmore of Muncie and two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Scott of Ross Common, Mich., and Mrs. Ortis Werking of Rush County. One uncle, Matthew Larmore aged 82 years of Pendleton, Ind., the last of the old family, together with a host of friends also mourn the loss of a faithful wife, a beloved mother, a true friend, and a tried sister and relative.

Mrs. Hollowell united with the United Brethren church at the age of 17 years and has been faithful to her christian duties throughout these years. She was a Christian not only in name and theory but in life and character as well. True to her Master she has lived, strong in faith, fervent in hope and when the brightness of noon faded into the shadows of evening and the evening deepened into night it was then that the hope of eternity burned most brilliantly and lighted the pathway as she yearned to be released from her suffering.

For 42 years Mr. and Mrs. Hollowell have lived together at the late home. There the summers and winters passed swiftly by until the house of clay crumbled when the soul took its flight from the home temporal into the home eternal. May the God of life so keep us all that some day in the home that abides in the heavens above we shall enjoy that glorious reunion with the loved and lost awhile. 261tL.

Dr. Frank Sparks, William Malno, L. B. Osborn, Elmer Griffiths, R. F. Scudder, J. H. Scholl, Wade Sherman, Dr. D. D. VanOsdol, A. F. Wagoner, James E. Watson, P. E. Wagoner, Samuel Young, G. W. Young, E. B. Thomas, L. B. Miller, Miles S. Cox, A. D. Batchelor, W. M. Sparks, Clayton Bebout, Melvin Moore.

At the close of the day's visitation a mass meeting of all the members of the congregation will be held at the church at 7:30 o'clock. Reports from the canvassers will be given and other interesting features will be added to the evening program. It is hoped that the membership may fill the entire church at this night meeting.

The sermon of the Rev. Mr. Batchelor laid emphasis upon the campaign. The text was, Rom. xii:13, "Given to hospitality." "The word hospitality" he said, "meant love for stranger. A church, therefore ought to have a cordial and friendly spirit. The members of the church should be sociable with each other. Moreover strangers should always be made to feel welcome. They should be visited in their homes and invited to participate in the activities of the church."

It was pointed out that there were many detached christians in the world and that the main reason for this was the inhospitality of churches. Hospitality was also given as a reason for successful evangelism. No church could save souls, he said, if it was cheerless and cold in its spirit and that there was also such a thing as hospitality toward the minister and his message.

"Persons who were inattentive to the message or who stayed away from church were remiss in hospitality," he declared. "Every empty pew was a discouragement and helped to chill the whole congregation."

In conclusion he said: "Our contributions were a splendid expression of our hospitality. These were evidence of a warm and friendly feeling toward those who needed to be helped. The benevolent societies of the church gave a splendid opportunity for such expression. Christian people were therefore inhospitable when they failed to support the benevolent agencies of the church. They were concerned more about themselves than others. This was what Paul truly meant by hospitality for the entire text reads, Communicating to the necessities of the saints; given to hospitality."

At the close of the service the influence of the pastor's message was seen in the general handshaking in which the congregation participated. There were four additions to the church yesterday.

ASK CHIEF TO BE MANDATED

Policemen Who Started Court Proceedings at Terre Haute Demand They be Given Jobs.

OTHER HOOSIER HAPPENINGS

Former Prominent Contractor of Bloomington Held at Martinsville on Charge of Forgery.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 12.—Complaint for mandate against Edward Holler as superintendent of police was filed in the superior court by attorneys representing Michael Hagerty and Patrick Haley, city patrolmen, who caused a restraining order to be issued by the circuit court a few days ago to prevent their being ousted by Mayor Roberts and his board of public safety. The complainants ask the court to mandate Superintendent of Police Holler to reinstate Hagerty and Haley as police officers.

In the complaint it is alleged that Holler, acting with full knowledge that a restraining order had been issued to prevent the suspension of Hagerty and Haley, willfully disobeyed and violated the provisions of the restraining order; that Holler on or after Jan. 5 last unlawfully refused and declined to give Patrolmen Hagerty and Haley any employment or assignments for duty as officers and members of the department of public safety and still unlawfully refuses and declines to assign them to positions in the department.

Damages in the sum of $1,000 and the costs of the action were demanded. The argument on the action will be heard Jan. 22.

AN ALLEGED FORGER HELD

Prominent Contractor Declared to Have Used Other Men's Names.

Nashville, Ind., Jan. 12.—John Finn, thirty-one years old, formerly a prominent contractor of Bloomington, was arrested here and was later taken to Martinsville, where he is charged with forgery. He is said to have confessed when he was captured by the sheriff here and admitted that he was on his way to Kentucky. He attributed his downfall to liquor.

Finn is said to have forged the name of Stewart & Stewart to checks in Newcastle, Rockport, Bedford, Indianapolis, Morgantown, Martinsville and Crawfordsville, his forgeries amounting to about $1,000. At Crawfordsville, it is said, he gave the Neal Machinery company a forged check for $554.68 for goods and another for $15, for which he obtained cash. At Martinsville he is said to have given the Woods-Whitacre company a worthless check for $150 for two wagons.

UNIFORMITY OF ACCOUNTS

Public Officials in Indiana Now Will Have a Definite Guide.

Indianapolis, Jan. 12.—Forms and text books to guide township and county officials in their work to the end that uniform accounts be kept and better business methods be used have been prepared by Gilbert H. Hendren, chief of the state board of accounts, and soon will be ready for distribution.

The duties of county commissioners are fully set out in one of the text books to be printed, so that there will be no excuse, say the accountants, for not following the law in the letting of contracts for roads, bridges, ditches, etc. County officials also will be required to tax fees according to the requirements of the law as set out in the second text book. The methods to be employed in keeping accounts in cities of all classes and of towns are also outlined.

Charles Waller Sentenced.

Princeton, Ind., Jan. 12.—Charles Waller, a coal miner of Massey, this county, pleaded guilty to a charge of manslaughter in circuit court and was sentenced to a term of from two to twenty-one years in the state reformatory. Waller was arrested in connection with the killing of Mrs. Anna Riley at Massey a few weeks ago.

Pile Driver Crushed Two.

Wabash, Ind., Jan. 12.—T. W. Tragers was injured fatally when his right arm was torn off, and William Pate suffered a fractured arm and was otherwise seriously hurt when a pile driver being used in construction work on the Erie railroad, toppled over to the ground, pinning the men beneath the heavy timbers.

Farmer Caught at Crossing.

Rochester, Ind., Jan. 12.—Peter Slonaker, a well-known farmer of this county, was struck and probably fatally injured while crossing the Erie railroad near here. He was riding in a storm buggy and did not see the engine. The engineer asserted that he blew the whistle.

Cut Out Coupon Below--Worth Twenty-five Cents to You

Good at Your Druggist, as Long as the Free Supply Lasts, for One 25c-Cent Package of the New "External" Treatment That Relieves Colds Over Night—Croup in Fifteen Minutes.

Vicks "Vac-O-Rub" Croup and Pneumonia Salve, the new treatment recently introduced here from North Carolina, relieves croup and cold troubles by external application. There is no need to dose the stomach with injurious medicines.

Its use is especially recommended to mothers with small children, as Vicks can be used freely and often without disturbing the delicate stomachs of the little folks. Plenty of fresh air in the bed room and a little Vicks applied at the first sign of trouble will insure the children against croup and pneumonia and keep them free from head and chest colds, sore throat, etc. Vicks is absolutely harmless—formula on every wrapper.

For all inflammation of the air passages, bronchitis, tonsillitis, catarrh, hoarseness, difficult breathing, etc., this new treatment will be found remarkably effective.

Applied externally over the throat and chest, the heat of the body releases soothing antiseptic vapors, that are inhaled with each breath. At the same time Vicks is absorbed through the skin, taking out the soreness and tightness. In very severe cases the pores of the skin are first opened by application of hot wet towels. Then Vicks is rubbed in well and covered with a warm flannel cloth. The covering around the neck is kept loose so that the vapor arising may be freely inhaled.

No one understands the value of an "external" treatment better than the skilled druggist, and a number of local druggists have made arrangements to give away 25-cent packages free to their customers upon receipt of the coupon below. The free supply with each dealer is limited, but if you come too late for a free package you can purchase a 25c, 50c or $1.00 jar on 30 days' trial. With each purchase you will be given a "refund blank" filled out by the druggist. If you do not find this new treatment the best thing you have ever tried, return this blank to your dealer and he will promptly refund you your money.

Among the druggists who are giving away free packages and also offering Vicks on 30 days' trial are: F. B. Johnson & Co., T. W. Lytle and F. E. Wolcott.

LACK OF FRESH AIR

Causes Rundown Condition. How to Keep Strong.

Statistics prove that the death rate is very much greater in the winter months than in summer, and that the lack of fresh air is largely responsible for this condition.

If the system becomes rundown, blood thin and watery, circulation poor, no appetite, don't dose with drugs, but take our delicious cod liver and iron tonic Vinol, not a patent medicine, as everything in it is named on every package and if it does not give you a hearty appetite, enrich the blood and create strength, we will return your money; that shows our faith in Vinol.

A case has just come to our attention from Knoxville, Tenn. Miss Carrie King says: "For three years I was all run-down, weak, had no appetite and after all that time I am glad to say Vinol has brought back my health and strength."

GIVES OPPORTUNITY TO GAIN LIBERTY

William T. Jerome, Harry Thaw's
Nemesis, Comments on Outcome of Thaw Commission Hearing.

STILL BELIEVES HIM INSANE

(By United Press.)

New York, Jan. 12.—William Travers Jerome today announced he would not go to New Hampshire to appear in Federal court and argue for the extradition of Harry Thaw unless required by Judge Aldrich.

Jerome said the commission's decision holding Thaw to be sane will have no effect on the status of the case further than giving Thaw the opportunity to get beyond the jurisdiction of all courts and gain his liberty.

"Let him meet Evelyn and we would soon see how crazy he is," added Jerome.

THAW IS JUBILANT TODAY

Will Not Leave New Hampshire if he is Granted Bail.

(By United Press.)

Concord, N. H., Jan. 12.—Harry Thaw posed for photographers today and appeared jubilant over the finding of the commission which decided he is sane. Thaw will not leave New Hampshire if admitted to bail. Federal Judge Aldrich is ill and the bail hearing can not be held for several days.

WILL ARREST THAW.

(By United Press.)

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 12.—New York state officials will arrest Harry Thaw when he crosses the border of New Hampshire into any state, Attorney General Carmody stated today.

THAW'S LIBERTY NOT A MENACE TO PUBLIC

Lunacy Commission Reports in Favor of Fugitive.

New York, Jan. 12.—Harry Thaw declined to make any statement regarding his movements if released. When telephoned at the Eagle hotel at Concord, N. H., someone else spoke in his place and said that Thaw would not make any remarks.

Concord, N. H., Jan. 12.—The commission appointed by Judge Aldrich of the United States court to reach a finding as to whether it would be a public menace to liberate Harry K. Thaw on bail pending a final decision of his case in the federal court, has reached a conclusion and filed the same with the clerk of the United States court in this city.

The commission holds that: "In our opinion it is reasonably probable that Harry Kendall Thaw's liberty under bail would not be dangerous or a menace to the public peace and safety."

The commission further states by its written report that its members have formed a unanimous and positive opinion as to the state of Thaw's mind at the time of the homicide, but refrains from expressing that opinion, because the scope of its inquiry does not permit of a finding or an opinion on this point.

The report is addressed to Judge Aldrich and signed by all the members of the commission. The somewhat exhaustive report says the commission went carefully over the case book of the Matteawan hospital, covering the period from Feb. 1, 1908, to Aug. 17, 1913, when Thaw escaped. It also examined transcripts of all other legal proceedings, including various direct and cross-examinations of Thaw and all evidence submitted at the two trials of Thaw for homicide. The report further says that "in its studies and deliberations the commission has in the main confined its attention to facts, preferring to attach little importance for its purpose, to the conflicting opinions of expert and other witnesses."

STATED MEETING.

The regular stated meeting of Rushville Council, No. 41, R. and S. M. will be held tonight. A large attendance is desired.

TO BE MARCHED UNDER A GAURO

aga Saturday night, today sent 1500 men to Salomir, the terminus of the Orleans railroad, there to rest before starting for Torreón.

Other Rebels will follow them daily until only a small garrison is left at Ojinaga. It is believed that the Rebels will evacuate Torreón without a fight. By recruiting as they advance, the Rebels expect to have an army of 30,000 men as they approach Mexico City.

IS NO CHANGE IN POLICY

American Charge D'Affaires Tells of Wilson's Opinion.

(By United Press.)

Mexico City, Jan. 12.—Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American Charge D'Affaires, said this afternoon that neither his conference with John Lind, special envoy, or Lind's conference with President Wilson at Pass Christian, Miss., so far as O'Shaughnessy knows, will bring about any change in the policy of the United States toward Mexico. Wilson, he said, is confident the Rebels if left alone, will win out in the long run and thus falls the problem of the Huerta government.

VILLA ADDS TO PRESTIGE

He Gains Added Strength by Fall of Ojinaga.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The taking of Ojinaga has again emphasized the fact that whatever has been accomplished for the revolution for the last few weeks has been done by Villa. There is no doubt in official quarters here that Villa, and not Carranza, will be the man with whom Huerta and also the United States will have to deal in the case of further successes being gained by the Constitutionalist forces.

Presidio, Tex., Jan. 12.—It is now generally agreed that Generals Orozco, Jose Y Salazar and Antonio Rojas, the federal volunteer generals most wanted by Villa, have, with 300 or 400 loyal followers, made their escape from Ojinaga, which has fallen to Pancho Villa. It is also said that they were joined by General Marvelo Caraveo, another federal volunteer general. Caraveo was reported to be among those who had surrendered to Major McNamee of the United States force on this side of the river, but when a census was taken he was not found among the federals who had sought asylum in the American camp at Presidio.

When it became known that Salazar and his fellow federal volunteer officers, who are considered by the Constitutionalist as arch traitors, and upon whose heads a price has been put, had escaped, Villa sent detachments in every direction with instructions to overtake them and capture them either dead or alive at any cost. Some of these detachments have returned to Ojinaga reporting failure, while others are still scouring the hills with the hope of catching the much wanted men.

It is reported among federal officers now prisoners in Major McNamee's hands that Salazar, though wounded, put up a gallant fight during the few brief hours the battle raged and distinguished himself for his bravery, as did also Orozco and Rojas. Caraveo, who had been wounded in the fighting of last week, did not take his usual active part in the last battle. Major Luis Terrazas, third, grandson of General Terrazas the Chihuahua land baron, is missing.

Major Mondoza of the federals was killed while making a stand at the custom house on the bank of the Rio Grande, while holding at bay a detachment of rebels intent upon cutting off the retreat of the main body of federals. Had it not been for Mondoza's brilliant work the slaughter of fugitives along the banks of the river would have been terrible. The rebels captured between 300 and 400 prisoners, the most of them volunteers, and hundreds of these have been executed.

The total rebel loss in killed is said to have been fewer than fifty. The federal loss on the battlefield will be over 100, not counting executions. The list of wounded on both sides will be heavy. There are more than 300 rebel and federal wounded now being cared for by the Red Cross in Presidio, and of these the great majority are federals.

Owing to exposure there is much sickness among the women and children as well as among the weaker of the soldier prisoners, but thus far no deaths have been reported. Large supplies of fuel have been gathered and many fires have been lighted throughout the concentration camp, enabling the fugitives to dry their clothing and ward off the icy blasts of the prevailing norther. There is no place to house the captured federals, so they are herded like cattle, with a line of soldiers surrounding them. Their officers are herded separately.

More than 2,000 rifles, two cannon, several machine guns and many thousand rounds of rifle ammunition were taken from the fleeing federal soldiers by Major McNamee's men and are piled in great heaps at Presidio. Many of the federals who surrendered threw away their guns before crossing the river, and several of the cannon which the federals attempted to bring across to the American side were abandoned, so close was the rebel pursuit. The rebels captured all these.

The rebels have removed the bodies of men and animals killed during the battle from the streets of Ojinaga and have the little town already well policed, in anticipation of its occupancy by a permanent garrison.

UNEMPLOYED IN RIOT AT DETROIT

10,000 Storm Ford Motor Plant and Are Repulsed With Fire Hose in Driving Gale.

ALL WANT JOB AT $5 PER DAY

(By United Press.)

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 12.—Near zero weather and a 42-mile blizzard failed to stop 10,000 unemployed men from going to the Ford Motor company's works early today. The cold was the cause for serious rioting. A thousand men stormed the guards and several hundred forced their way inside.

A policeman was knocked down. Other policemen who went to his assistance cracked heads freely with riot sticks. In the general fight bricks and stones were thrown and several persons were hurt. The mob finally dispersed when the fire hose was brought into play because the men could not stand to be drenched with cold water.

The unemployed gathered because of the announcement recently that $5 a day would be the minimum wage in the Ford factory.

A literary entertainment will be given by the Epworth League at Gowdy January 22.
